TERMS OF REFERENCE

1. BACKGROUND / RATIONALE

West Bengal has emerged to be one of the vulnerable states in terms of early marriage with 41.6% (48.1% in rural areas) and 16.4% (19.6% in rural areas) rate of teenage pregnancy as per the latest National Family Health Survey 5 (2019-20) data and therefore it urgently requires quality technical intervention at all levels for creating a safety net for adolescents in the district. Murshidabad shows higher prevalence of child marriage (55.4%) and teenage pregnancy (20.6%), compared to the overall rate of the state. The child protection deprivations also compounded by a huge population, bordering areas and almost 60% Muslim population with 795 nos. of missing children (Track Child, 2023).

The above-mentioned district being the priority intervention area of UN ORGANISATION even in the last country programme, will continue to receive technical support with focus on the following domains:

- Strengthening national/ state Child Protection schemes and programmes for adolescents viz. Mission Vatsalya, Kanyashree Prakalpa, RKSK, School Health & Wellness Programme etc.

- Support planning, implementation, monitoring and reporting of the DWCD&SW anchored Mission Vatsalya and District Action Plan on Ending Child marriage along with other issues as per emerging priorities
- Capacity building of government service providers at all levels to strengthen the delivery of gender responsive child protection and adolescent friendly services,
- Building 21st century skills, life-skills, legal literacy of adolescents and support emerging needs around MHPSS, career guidance etc.
- Engaging adolescents in the decision-making process with the government, parents and community at large by promoting inter-generational dialogue and empowering adolescents as agents of change
- Technical support to P&RDD for inclusion of child protection and adolescent priorities in GPDP and promote participatory forums like Bal Sabhas, CPCs
- Strengthening Child Friendly Sanghas through District Rural Development Cell (DRDC) under West Bengal State Rural Livelihood Mission (WBSRLM) for improved prevention and response to adolescent/ CP priorities
- Strengthening community platforms like Block, Gram Panchayat and Village/Ward Level Child Protection Committees (CPCs)
- Promote Mental Health First Aid (MHFA) through parents, front line workers and communities

UN ORGANISATION being the partner of Department of WCD&SW, Government of West Bengal will provide services of a Consultant, who shall provide necessary support in planning, coordination, monitoring and documentation of adolescent/ child protection programming in the district.
