Child Marriage and Adolescent Girls Programme under (UNFPA)

1. ORGANIZATION BACKGROUND: The United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA), formerly the United Nations Fund for Population Activities, is a UN organization working for reproductive rights for all and supports access to a wide range of sexual and reproductive health services including voluntary family planning, maternal health care and comprehensive sexuality education.

2. BACKGROUND / RATIONALE

Harmful practices such as child marriage, domestic violence, gender biased sex selection and such others are part of a continuum of violence against women and girls that they face during their lifespan and remains widespread. Several initiatives have been taken in the state of Odisha to address the above issues. However, there is need for continuous engagement with various stakeholders to end this discrimination and violence.

The Department of Women and Child Development and Mission Shakti, Government of Odisha is undertaking several initiatives to address vulnerabilities of girls, ensure equity and works towards empowerment of girls and women in the state.

UNFPA in the state of Odisha has supported the Government in developing several policies and programmes such as the “Odisha State Policy for Girls and Women”, “Biju Kanya Ratna”, “State Action Plan to End Child Marriage” and “Advika — Programme for empowerment of adolescent girls through life skills education”. UNFPA is working closely with the Department on several fronts and seeks to place a Consultant with the Department of Women and Child Development and Mission Shakti.

The Consultant is expected to provide high quality technical support at policy and program level on issues of gender equality, gender-based violence and women's empowerment that ultimately aims to address harmful practices against girls and women.
